2009 USRowing Women's NT Pre-Elite Camps (Updated 5/22)

2009 USRowing Women's National Team Pre-Elite Camp Invitations

USRowing is pleased to announce that the following athletes have been invited to the Women's National Team Pre-Elite Camp. The camp will be held in at Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind. More details about the camp can be found below.

The Women's National Team Pre-Elite Camp is focused on developing athletes who have the potential to contribute to future Under 23 and Senior National Teams. The goal of this camp is to introduce and develop sculling, improve technique focusing on small boats, gain fitness and increase strength-to-weight ratio, and acquire skills necessary to compete at the elite level. Athletes will train intensely with two to three practices per day, and they will have opportunities to race throughout the summer.

Additional information will be posted as it becomes available.
